Postal address:

Muresk Institute, Locked Bag 2,
Northam, WA 6401

Location address:

Muresk Institute, Spencers Brook Road,
Northam, WA 6401

From the west (Perth)

- From Midland, take the Great Eastern Highway and head east.
- At Clackline, turn right on to Spencers Brook Road just after the Clackline bridge. Continue on this road for approximately 19 km.
- Go past the Spencers Brook Tavern, over the railway crossing and the Avon River Bridge.
- Look for the Muresk Institute signpost and turn right into Muresk Drive.

From the south (Albany)

- Travel to York township, continue straight through the main street (Avon Terrace).
- Avon Terrace will become Spencers Brook-York Road.
- At Spencers Brook there is a T junction, turn right, go over the bridge and then turn right into Muresk Institute.

From the north (Geraldton)

- Take Great Northern Highway to Moora and then the Piawaning turn off (this is clearly signposted when travelling south along Great Northern Highway, 18km south of Walebing). This road is called the Waddington-Wongan Hills Road.
- Once at Piawaning, turn right at the T junction and then take another right once over the railway line (you will then be heading south). From there you will pass through Yerecoin, Calingiri, Bolgart, Toodyay and Clackline.
- Drive another 19 km (after turning left at the Clackline T junction), passing through Spencers Brook.
- After the railway line and bridge make a sharp right turn into Muresk Institute.

From the east (Merredin)

- Take Great Eastern Highway to Northam. Turn right on to Peel Terrace. Look out for Wellington Street on the left (just opposite the entrance to the railway station).
- Wellington Street runs parallel to the town's main street and becomes Spencers Brook Road, which leads to Muresk.
- The turn into Muresk Institute will be on a bend to the left, before the township of Spencers Brook.

Public transport

There are two TransWA train services to *Northam:

- Prospector (Perth-Kalgoorlie)
- AvonLink (Northam-Midland/Perth).

TransWA also operates coach services from Perth and throughout regional Western Australia. For up to date information and timetables, visit w:transwa.wa.gov.au

*Muresk Institute is approximately 12 km from Northam, you will be required to arrange your own transport from Northam to the Institute.
